Sunday in Town—Charles Overlock, the well known Douglas business man, spent Sunday in this city. He reports Douglas steadily advancing.

Building Home—Walter Greasy, head electrician with the Copper Queen, is building a handsome modern cottage for his own use on Quality Hill.

Returned Home—The last of the ladies who were here to attend the session of the Federation of Women's Clubs, left the city for their homes on Sunday morning's trains.

Prof. Douglas Leaves—A special train made up of the private car Michigan and a combination car was pulled out of the city Sunday evening by engine 15 for Globe and Morenci. It carried Professor James Douglas, who goes to those points to inspect Phelps Dodge properties.

For Benefit of Bondsmen—J. P. Storm and wife of Prescott have turned over to the bondsmen of Mr. Storm their house, lot, piano and five shares of the Arizona State Telephone company, which constitutes all their property. The property is valued at $3,000. The amount the bondsmen are in jeopardy by the recent looting of the office of County Treasurer Storm by robbers, totals $15,486.35, less the value of the property turned over by Mr. and Mrs. Storm.

Crippled Engine—Engine 11 came in Sunday evening, with the train from Benson, in a crippled condition necessitated her being left here, attempts at temporary repairs proving futile. After the latter engine 30 was ordered to take the train out, but before she could be got around the order was countermanded with one instructing that the train await engine 7 with the stub train. As a consequence passengers for Douglas put in a little better than an hour at the depot awaiting the departure of their train.

Hearing Opens Today—Hearing of the South Bisbee suit at Los Angeles will open today, providing a compromise has not been reached between the contending parties. This, it was intimated in a letter received in the city yesterday, was not among things impossible. Overtures are said to have been made to the Bisbee people of sufficient attractiveness to warrant them being taken under serious advisement. Settlement out of court would mean that when the case is called this morning dismissal would occur. It would also undoubtedly mean that much expensive litigation would be nipped, comparatively, in the bud.

Sonora Property—Among recent passengers over the E. P. & S. W. bound for Tucson were Secretary Snyder, of the Sonora Mining Co. and Mr. McKinnon, the millionaire cotton manufacturer of New York. The gentlemen were enroute to the property of the Sonora, formerly the Juarez Mining Co. Reorganization of the company was recently effected, and it is said that it now stands in better position to go ahead than ever before in its history. Those familiar with its holdings say that the ore is there to make one of the greatest mining propositions in Mexico.

Rev. H. M. Shields Will Leave Bisbee

ANNOUNCEMENT IS MADE FROM PULPIT OF PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH ON SUNDAY MORNING.

Will Become a Minister of the Gospel of the Episcopal Church—Change Has Been Under Contemplation for a Number of Years—Will Be Ordained an Episcopal Minister in Los Angeles.

Rev. H. M. Shields has resigned his position as a Minister of the Presbyterian Church, and will leave on Friday evening next for Los Angeles, where he will shortly be ordained as an Episcopal minister.

This announcement was made by Rev. Shields from the pulpit in the Presbyterian church last Sunday morning, and came as a complete surprise to the congregation assembled, and his determination was entirely unknown except to a few intimate friends and officers of the church.

Bishop Kendrick, of the Episcopal church, arrived in Bisbee on Saturday and Rev. Shields and the Bishop held a long conference on Saturday, and it was then decided that Mr. Shields would make the announcement in his church on the following Sabbath.

Rev. Shields was seen last evening by the Review, and gave out the following statement for publication:

"Mr. Kelly has very kindly asked me to make known to the public the reasons for yesterday's announcement to the congregation of the Church of the Covenant of my withdrawing from the Presbyterian ministry and applying to the Episcopal Bishop of Arizona for orders.

"The entire decision in both directions is due to the demands of consideration and after years of careful consideration. It is possible that some events of recent years and months have precipitated the matter somewhat, but it was inevitable.

"Thirteen years of busy ministry in the Presbyterian church, the church of my fathers, whom I revere, could be closed only by reason of such change in theological views as would render the old relation impossible. My preference for the Episcopal church is due to the conviction that there I find that authority and latitude that will make for a sweeter personal peace, and, I trust, a more helpful ministry to men; due also to the fact that my saluted mother's ancestry sought and found a religious home in this church.

"I have only the will to remember those with whom past associations were found with kindest wishes and earnest prayers.

"With my little family it is my plan, by approval of Bishop Kendrick, to go on next Friday evening to Los Angeles for that period of preparation required by church law to be spent under the direction of Bishop Johnson, and then after ordination take the parish to which I may be appointed by one or other of the Bishops as they may agree.

"What Mrs. Shields, the children and I feel of heart soreness at the thought of leaving Bisbee, possibly forever, after these nearly four years of precious kindness experienced from so many sources, and of numberless opportunities afforded us for ministry, no one could know but ourselves. If any opportunity was not rightly and lovingly used, I can only hope for a full forgiveness.

"The closing text of the pastorate was, 'The Lord Be Between Thee and Me.'"

The departure of Mr. Shields from Bisbee will be cause for universal regret. He has endeared himself to everyone with whom he has come in contact, and they have been legion, both high and low. The best wishes of the entire community go with him into his new chosen field of work.

Mrs. H. A. Wells returned Sunday from a visit to Tucson.
